

Registering impacts in Pure

Log in to Pure at www.sdu.dk/pure . Click 'Add new' and 'Impact'.

The impact template in Pure contains a title field, a description field and fields for impact category and impact level. The description field offers the opportunity to make a qualitative description of the impact your research has had. Other content added in Pure with relation to the impact can be added to the impact at the bottom of the template. This can be Publications, Projects, Press/media, Prizes and more.
